BODY LANGUAGE

Individual Body Understanding & Training Focus

90-120 MINUTES / ON-SITE / PRACTICAL

A guided workshop for gyms, studios, health centres, performance spaces and teams. Participants explore movement and body awareness, then name three personal training focuses to carry into existing training.

WHAT PARTICIPANTS TAKE AWAY

A clearer view of their own patterns. Greater awareness of mobility, stability, strength, control, breath, tension and recovery. Three personal training focuses.

No diagnosis. No generic training prescription.

What you book

An external 90–120 minute on-site workshop. We agree audience, group size, focus, space, duration and materials before confirmation. It can be a member event, one-off workshop, recurring format, health day, performance or corporate workshop.

A clear division of roles

THE PARTNER PROVIDES

Suitable space
Participants and booking route
Agreed equipment
Event communication and logistics

WE PROVIDE

Concept and preparation
On-site professional facilitation
Movement and observation process
Personal focus development

Commercial model

The organisation books the workshop. It may finance the event, offer paid places or agree another model with us. Depending on location and format, participant tickets might for example be around €30–50 per person. This is not our workshop fee or a fixed ticket price.

CLEAR BEFORE CONFIRMATION

Fee, travel, date, duration, group size, responsibilities, venue and participant model are agreed in writing before a booking is confirmed.

Next step

Request BODY LANGUAGE via the partner page. We review the context, clarify the format and provide a written scope. An enquiry does not reserve a date.
